

Lyman, Amasa M. (1813-1877), farmer; born at Lyman, Grafton County, New Hampshire. Joined Latter-day Saints and moved to Kirtland, Ohio, 1832. Participant in march of Zion's Camp, 1834. Married Maria Tanner, 1835. Although arrested with Joseph Smith at Far West, Missouri in 1838, he was not charged at the Richmond hearing. Appointed an apostle in 1842, a member of the First Presidency the following year, and the Council of Twelve, 1844. Arrived with pioneer company in Salt Lake Valley in 1847. Assisted in colonization of, and presided over settlement at San Bernardino, California, 1851-57. President of European mission, 1860-62. Colonized Fillmore, Utah, 1863. Excommunicated in 1870 for teaching false doctrine. Died at Fillmore, Utah. [PJSv1]

Lyman, Amasa M. (1813-1877), farmer; born at Lyman, Grafton County, New Hampshire. Joined Latter-day Saints and moved to Kirtland, Ohio, 1832. Participant in march of Zion's Camp, 1834. Married Maria Tanner, 1835. Although arrested with Joseph Smith at Far West, Missouri, in 1838, he was not charged at the Richmond hearing. Appointed an apostle in 1842, a member of the First Presidency the following year, and the Council of Twelve, 1844. Arrived with pioneer company in Salt Lake Valley in 1847. Assisted in colonization of and presided over settlement at San Bernardino, California, 1851-1857. President of European Mission, 1860-62. Moved to Fillmore, Utah, 1863. Excommunicated in 1870 for teaching false doctrine. Died at Fillmore. [PJSv2]

Lyman, Amasa Mason. Son of Boswell Lyman and Martha Mason. Born 30 March 1813 in Lyman, Grafton County, New Hampshire. Baptized 27 April 1832. Ordained elder by Joseph Smith in Hiram, Ohio, 23 August 1832. Moved to Kirtland, Ohio, by summer of 1832. Mission in southern Ohio and Cable County, Virginia, with Zerubbabel Snow in fall of 1832. Appointed to travel east with William F. Cahoon on mission 12 March 1833. Ordained high priest 11 December 1833. Member of Zion's Camp 1834. Married Maria Louisa Tanner 10 June 1835. Eight children: Matilda, Francis Marion, Ruth Adelia, Amasa Mason, Maria Louisa, Lelia Deseret, Love Josephine, and Agnes Hila. Ordained seventy about March 1835. Charter member of and owned stock in Kirtland Safety Society 1837. Moved to Far West, Missouri, 1837. Arrested November 1838 for treason, and other charges. No conviction. Settled in Lee County, Iowa, in spring of 1840. Moved to Nauvoo, Illinois, 1841. Appointed to serve mission to New York City 7 October 1841. Initiated into Masonry 8 April 1842. Ordained apostle 20 August 1842, filling vacancy created by Orson Pratt's excommunication. Elected regent for University of Nauvoo 20 August 1842. Mission to southern Illinois with George A. Smith September 1842. Returned to Nauvoo 4 October 1842. Directed to settle with family in Shoccoquon, Henderson County, Illinois, late 1842; remained until summer of 1843. Appointed member of First Presidency 20 January 1843. Received endowment 28 September 1843. Mission with family to Alquina, Fayette County, Indiana, 1843-44. Member of Council of Fifty, probably as early as 11 April 1844. Appointed to campaign for Joseph Smith as President of United States April 1844. Returned to Alquina, Indiana, April 1844. Traveled to Cincinnati, Ohio, June 1844. Returned to Nauvoo 31 July 1844, after Prophet's death. Sustained member of Quorum of Twelve 12 August 1844. Member of board of trustees of Seventy's Library and Institute Association 1845. Sealed to Caroline Ely Partridge (born 1827 in Ohio) 6 September 1844. Five children: Martha Lydia, Frederick Rich, Annie, Walter Clisbee, and Harriet Jane. Sealed to Eliza Maria Partridge Smith for time 28 September 1844. Five children: Don Carlos, Platte Dealton, Carlie Eliza, Joseph Alvin, and Lucy Zina. Sealed to Cornelia Eliza Leavitt (born 1825 in Ohio) 14 November 1844. Two known children: Lorenzo and Henry Elias. Sealed to Dianitia Walker (born 1818 in Ohio) July 1845. No children. Sealed in Nauvoo Temple to Paulina Eliza Phelps (born 1827 in Illinois) 16 January 1846. Seven known children: Oscar Morris, Mason Roswell, Clark, Charles Rich, William Home, Solen Ezra, and Laura Paulina. Sealed in Nauvoo Temple to Priscilla Rebecca Turley (born 1829 in Upper Canada) 16 January 1846. Six known children: Theodore, Ira Depo, Isaac Newton, Albert Augustus, Stephen Alonzo, and Frances Priscilla. Sealed in

Nauvoo Temple to Laura Reed (born 1829 in Ohio) 28 January 1846. No known children. Left Nauvoo for West 1846. Located in Winter Quarters. To Salt Lake Valley July 1847. Returned to Winter Quarters 1847. Appointed 8 April 1849 to travel to California with Orrin P. Rockwell to take consignment of mail to San Francisco. Left 20 April 1849. Returned to Salt Lake City about August 1849. Appointed to travel to California again September 1849 to present to California Constitutional Convention proposal that California and Deseret form one large state. Proposal rejected by California legislators. Explored possible sites for settlement in southern California 1850. Returned to Salt Lake City September 1850. Appointed 23 February 1851 to join with Charles C. Rich in leading company of Saints to San Bernardino, California. Left with company of 437 24 March 1851. Arrived in June 1851. Assisted in settling and presiding over Saints in San Bernardino 1851-57. Married Lydia Partridge 7 February 1853. Four known children: Edward Leo, Ida Evelyn, Frank Arthur, and Lydia Mae. Mission to Great Britain 1860. Left Salt Lake City 1 May 1860. Arrived in Liverpool 27 July 1860. Presided over European Mission with Charles C. Rich until 14 May 1862. Returned to Salt Lake City mid-September 1862. Appointed to settle Fillmore, Millard County, Utah, October 1862. Left for Fillmore mid-April 1863. Excommunicated 12 May 1870 for persisting in teaching unorthodox doctrine pertaining to atonement of Christ and for associating with Godbeites. Died in Fillmore, Millard County, Utah, 4 February 1877. [Cook]

Lyman, Azariah (1777-1857), farmer; born at Westhampton, Hampshire County, Massachusetts. Married Rhoda Rust, 1799. After her death in 1809 he married Sarah Bartlett, 1811. Exchanging his Massachusetts farm for land in the western wilderness, he became a pioneer settler of Geauga County, Ohio, in 1823. Jointly owned a sawmill, grist mill, and seventeen acres of land at Kirtland with Austin Loud. He died at Chester, Geauga County, Ohio. [PJSv2]

Lyman, Richard (1794-1861), born at Lebanon, Grafton County, New Hampshire. Brother-in-law of patriarch John Smith. Married Catharine Lamson, 1815. [PJSv2]